

ECF on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) Frequently Asked Questions

General

1. Is the ECF on AML/CFT under the Government subsidised scheme?

Eligible candidates working in the wealth and asset management industry can apply for the financial incentive scheme for professional training under the pilot programme to enhance talent training for the asset and wealth management sector (the WAM Pilot Programme), which is funded by the HKSAR Government. Please visit www.wamtalent.org.hk for application details and the list of reimbursable pilot programmes under the WAM Pilot Programme. Please note that only the training fee is covered by the funding but certification, membership and examination fees are excluded. Application documents must be submitted through the WAM website within FOUR months from the last day of the course attended.

2. What is the difference between the standalone ECF on AML/CFT programme and the ECF on AML/CFT module in CB (Stage I/II)?

The programme content and assessment are exactly the same, though the entry requirements are different. Individuals who have completed the “Advanced Certificate for ECF on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT)” programme and passed the relevant examination would be eligible to be awarded the programme certificate. They will be encouraged to further study the CB (Stage I) programme and exemption of the elective module of CB (Stage I) “ECF on AML/CFT (Core Level) can be applied.

And individuals who have completed the “Professional Certificate for ECF on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT)” programme and passed the relevant examination would be eligible to be awarded the programme certificate. They will be encouraged to further study the CB (Stage II) programme and exemption of the elective module of CB (Stage II) “ECF on AML/CFT (Professional Level) can be applied.

Training

3. What are the differences between “Tutorial” and “Tuition” in ECF on AML/CFT (Core Level)?

	Tutorial	Tuition
Training Duration	6 hours	15 hours
Fees	HKD1,860 (Including a Study Guide)	HKD3,750 (Including a Study Guide)

Apart from the differences in training duration and fees, candidates with less than 2 years of relevant working experience are highly recommended to enrol in the “Tuition” programme.

4. How can I know if I have been successfully enrolled?

An email will be sent to the applicant confirming the class details at least 5 working days prior to the training commencement date.

5. Can a full-time student apply for the training?

One of the objectives of the ECF on AML/CFT programme is to develop a sustainable talent pool of AML/CFT practitioners in order to meet the workforce demand in this sector. As such, registered HKIB student members or post-secondary full-time students are also welcome to enroll on the training. They will also be awarded the programme certificate “Advanced Certificate for ECF on AML/CFT”. However, they will not be able to obtain the designation until they have gained the required work experience in the relevant area.

6. What is the attendance requirement?

To facilitate the learning process for candidates, they are expected to have full attendance before taking the examination. Candidates are also required to sign-in and sign-out on the attendance sheet at every training session.

7. Can I obtain the study guide before the training?

Normally, the study guide will be distributed in the first session of the training. However, candidates may request to collect the study guide in advance at HKIB’s office on the condition that their enrolment has been successfully accepted and payment has been settled.

8. Is there any arrangement if I am absent from a training session?

The supplementary notes or presentation slides will be provided to candidates who were absent from the related training session. For any further enquiries about the content, candidates can seek support from the trainers through HKIB.

9. What should I do if I wish to change the training date?

Generally, any change of the training date is NOT allowed. However, if a candidate is sick on the training date and cannot attend the training, he/she should inform the Institute and provide a supporting document (e.g. sick leave certificate) for our reference. The candidate may be permitted to attend the next subsequent training subject to the availability of seats.

10. Can I apply for a refund if I withdraw the training application?

Once the training application is confirmed, all fees are non-refundable or non-transferrable.

11. Can I apply for training after the application deadline?

Pathway	Application Deadline
(A) By completion of the training programme and examination	Within 2 months after issuance of the examination result letter
(B) Grandfathered based on work experience	Within 2 months after issuance of the grandfathering approval letter

After the application deadline, Relevant Practitioners who do not submit their AAML/CAMLP certification application must take the relevant training programme and pass the examination to recommence the eligibility to apply for the AAML/CAMLP designation.

It is expected to take 60 days for HKIB to process applications provided that the application form and supporting documents are completed.

31. I've obtained AAML/CAMLP in August this year. When and how will I be notified to renew my AAML/CAMLP certification?

The renewal fee for AAML/CAMLP certification is on an annual basis and runs from 1 January to 31 December. Irrespective of the date of your first certification as AAML/CAMLP with HKIB, your certification will be expired on 31 December of the same year. You are required to renew your AAML/CAMLP certification annually and a renewal notice will be emailed to all AAML/CAMLP holders in December.

If you fail to renew the certification before 31 January, your certification will be suspended, and your name and status information will not appear on the Certified Individuals (CI) Register published on the HKIB website. As a result, you will not be allowed to include the professional designation on your name card or CV.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

32. Do I need to fulfill CPD requirements after I have become an AAML/CAMLP holder?

AAML/CAMLP holders are required to complete a minimum of 10/12 verifiable CPD hours per calendar year of which at least 5/6 hours should be on AML/CFT, with the remaining hours on compliance (including financial crime compliance), risk management, ethics or legal and regulatory requirements, in order to renew their certification.

33. What is the consequence if I do not comply with the CPD requirements?

If AAML/CAMLP holders fail to comply with the CPD requirements, it would result in the suspension of their professional designations. Their name and professional designation status would not appear on the Certified Individuals (CI) Register published on the HKIB website, and they would not be allowed to include the professional designation on their name card or CV.

34. Can I apply for AAML/CAMLP certification if I have completed the training programme and examination but I am not currently a Relevant Practitioner?

If you have completed the training programme and examination at the Core/Professional Level but are not currently a Relevant Practitioner, you may submit your application to HKIB for certification within THREE months of joining the AML/CFT function of an Authorized Institution.

35. Any CPD hours for AAML holders can be obtained from Enhanced Competency Framework on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Financing of Terrorism Professional Level Training and Bridging Course?

Yes, relevant topics of qualified CPD activities for AAML/CAMLP holders include AML/CFT, compliance (including financial crime compliance), legal and regulatory requirements, risk management or ethics. More details can be found in the HKIB website - Overview of HKIB CPD Scheme.
