Notes on CPD requirements for Professional Members/ECF Certification holders

The HKIB CPD Scheme was implemented in 2010 and is updated in 2018.

- 1. Qualified CPD activities must be relevant to the professional development of a banking and finance professional with the following scopes
 - compliance, code of conduct, professional ethics or risk management
 - banking and financial knowledge
 - economics
 - accounting
 - legal principles
 - business and people management
 - language and information technology
- 2. Claimable CPD activities within the above scopes include:
 - HKIB CPD/CPT activities
 - HKIB e-learning courses
 - CPD/CPT courses organized / formally accredited by professional bodies or financial regulatory bodies for their own CPD/CPT programmes
 - Serving as a judge for HKIB Awards
 - Writing of published technical research articles, papers or books
 - Teaching / delivering speeches
 - Serving as a member of committees and working groups of HKIB, government bodies or any other relevant professional bodies
 - Community / voluntary activities
 - Mentoring scheme appointed by tertiary institutes, government bodies or professional bodies as a Mentor
- 3. Unless otherwise specified, one hour of a qualified CPD activity will be counted as one CPD hour under normal circumstances.
- 4. CPD activities lacking proof of attendance or assessment record for verification may not be counted.
- 5. Details of the HKIB CPD Scheme can be found in the "HKIB CPD Requirements" section in the "Membership" section at www.hkib.org.
