Note 1: The training costs can be paid by the Applicant to the training providers directly or through reimbursement to the relevant Eligible Practitioner. If part of the training costs were paid through reimbursement to the Eligible Practitioner who claimed that he/she had self-paid for the relevant training costs before being employed by the Applicant, the Applicant should have proper internal controls in place, including requesting for a declaration by the employee and checking with his/her former employers (where applicable), to ascertain the actual amount of previous self-pay training costs (net of any reimbursements from the former employers where applicable). Please refer to Q.6 and Q.7 of the FAQ for details. Note 2: If part of the training fees were paid in a foreign currency, in general, the HKIB will convert the relevant amount into equivalent HK dollars based on the relevant exchange rate as at the date of receipt of the application form provided on the website of the Hong Kong Association of Banks. The HKIB reserves the right of final decision on the relevant exchange rate to be used for the purposes of calculating the training subsidy amount.
