

Overview

In collaboration with the Space Economy Association (Hong Kong) Limited (SEA), HKIB will host a seminar on the commercial space sector and its relevance to the banking industry in Hong Kong. As the space economy rapidly expands from science fiction to commercial reality, it is unlocking new opportunities for financing, investment, and innovation. With strong policy support from both Chinese Mainland and Hong Kong, the sector is emerging as a key driver of future growth. Join us to explore the latest developments in commercial space, understand the opportunities and risks for financial institutions, and discover how Hong Kong can support the growth of this fast-evolving industry.

Agenda

- Overview of the Commercial Space Economy
- Strategic Importance of Commercial Space in Chinese Mainland and Hong Kong
